JUDGMENT

Having heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and the learned Government Pleader, I find no grounds to interfere with, except to give a breathing time to the petitioner to pay off the outstandings. Under such circumstances, this writ petition is disposed of directing that if the petitioner deposits an amount of Rs.1 lakh at or before the time fixed for the impugned sale, such sale shall be adjourned to facilitate the petitioner to pay off the remaining outstandings in two instalments payable on or before the 20th of September, 2007 and 22nd of October, 2007. If the petitioner fails to remit any of the instalments as aforesaid, the revenue authorities will be at liberty to forthwith proceed with the impugned action without any further notice and from the stage at which it rests, as of now.

THOTTATHIL B. RADHAKRISHNAN, JUDGE.
